HORN GETS $500 FINE AND 90 DAYS

JURY FINDS DEFENDANT GUILTY IN CITY LIQUOR CASE

TWO BALLOTS WERE TAKEN

The Case of W. L. Carpenter Against Aaron Linville on Trial Today in Circuit Court

Clyde Horn was found guilty of transporting intoxicating liquor in the city of Maryville and was given a fine of $500 and a jail sentence of ninety days by a jury in circuit court this morning. This case originated in the city police court where Horn received a fine of $1,000 and a jail sentence of one year and then an appeal was taken to circuit court.

It is understood the jury took only two ballots, the first standing 11 to 1 for conviction and the second being unanimous for conviction. Several minutes were taken to fix the punishment. The jury was out a little less than one hour.

A similar charge is pending against Grover Hatcher who is now in jail in Andrew County on a charge of hog stealing. Hatcher and Horn were together in Maryville on the night of January 29, 1922, when arrested by the authorities and caught with liquor in the car. After the city had filed complaints against Horn and Hatcher, state charges were filed and these cases are still pending.

Horn's attorneys will file a motion for a new trial and if they are overruled an appeal will be taken to the Kansas City Court of Appeals.

The case of W. L. Carpenter against Aaron Linville on an account was being tried in circuit court today. This case was up in circuit court at the last term when a non-suit was taken. The jury hearing the case is composed of James Farrel, Dwight Davis, C. H. Miller, T. H. Acklin, Arlo Vanscoy, Ernest G. Wells, L. T. Graham, John Kneisley, Roy Curfman, W. H. Swinford, James E. Montgomery and William Hughes.

The case of the City of Skidmore against Leslie Dawson, W. R. Fullerton, Ernest Montgomery, Ralph Johnson and Lester Linville, on charges of gaming, was filed in circuit court today. These young men were recently fined in the city police court at Skidmore and took an appeal to circuit court.

The Setinola Company vs. D. N. Scott, account, defendant defaulted, evidence heard and judgment for $405.69.

The criminal docket will be taken up in circuit court tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Harve England and son, Howell, attended the funeral yesterday morning.

LAW AND ORDER SUNDAY IS DESIGNATED BY GOV. HYDE

Governor Sets Aside Next Sunday for Observance of Day by Civic and Religious Bodies

Governor Hyde has issued a proclamation designating next Sunday as law and order Sunday. He calls attention to the intolerance of law and interperence with its restraints; the taking of law into their own hands by groups of men and asserts that the only liberty lies in law obedience and law enforcement. On this account, he says, he has set apart Sunday, Jan. 28, "to be known as Law and Order Sunday, hereby calling upon all of the civic and religious organizations and upon the citizenship generally to give thought and consideration upon the safeguards of our liberties as embodied in the Constitutions and the laws of our State and nation."

Calls Maryville a Peaceable Brotherly-Loving Town

(By Mrs. Mary Blake Woodson, editor of the Missouri Notes in today's Kansas City Times.)

If the city of Philadelphia, Pa., will take the advice of Missouri Notes it will keep its eye on Maryville, Mo., and loom strictly to its laurels as the City of Brotherly Love. For Maryville is growing fast and already prides itself on the fact that it is one of the most peaceable, brotherly-loving towns in the state. And this is no vain boast, as Missouri Notes knows after a short sojourn there when the whole city was turned over, more or less, for inspection and examination and proved interesting to view. They even swap postmaster's up there without batting an eye and utterly without rancor. Editor Jim Todd of the Maryville Democrat-Forum, present postmaster, merely making a beaming bow to Editor Fred Hull of the Maryville Tribune, Republican about-to-be postmaster, and vice-versa, 'tis said, when the administration changes.

The town boasts the Commercial Club and the Commercial Club boasts the town and the county and the state, and the state boasts the Teachers' College and the Teachers' College comes right back and boasts the town and then they begin all over again. No fight. No factions. No very rich, no very poor, no jealousies, no envious, no class distinctions. They all pull together in Maryville and they are all alike, the Colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady and the Colonel and old man O'Grady himself, too. And they all claim the stranger, and guest money is absolutely no good to these hospitable citizens who make the town seem like a spider web, pleasantly easy to get into and exceedingly hard to leave.

And Maryville has a lot to point to with pride. There is the State Teachers College and good schools and streets paved with other things than good intentions and a creditable conservatory of music and big stores and live business. It's no fun to get sick there because the St. Francis hospital is one of the few class A hospitals of the state and gets you well again before you know you are sick. And it has a fine memorial drive with handsome gates erected by the D. A. R. where lights burn nightly in memory of the county dead and where a tree for each soldier grows for remembrance. It has

GARY RUM RING IS BROUGHT TO LIGHT

HUGE LIQUOR TRADE REVEALED BY ARRESTS

OFFICIALS IMPLICATED

Mayor, Ex-Sheriff, Prosecuting Attorney and Others Arrested by U. S. Marshals

Gary, Ind., Jan. 23.—The arrests of Mayor Rosewell O. Johnson, Sheriff L. H. Olds, Lewis Barnes, ex-sheriff, now president of the Gary board of public welfare, Dwight B. Kinder, prosecuting attorney, and a score of other Gary and Lake County officials, marks the beginning to uncover the biggest liquor ring in the West, said R. C. Minters, counsel for the prohibition officials of Indiana today.

Seventy-five were ordered taken in the custody under indictments returned at Indianapolis. The arrests were made by United States marshals.

Attorneys, constables, justices of the peace and other officers were arrested.

Even Gary, which had been expecting the federal agents to act since the indictments were returned a week ago Saturday, were shocked by the scope of the raids. While most of those taken were high officials, some notorious police characters and bootleggers were included.

Each of the men indicted is accused of having participated in a gigantic conspiracy to frustrate the prohibition law.

The federal officers established their headquarters in the office of Mayor Johnson. Aided by policemen and using city motor cars, they visited the business establishments of individuals indicated. As each arrest was made the prisoner was brought to the mayor's office, where he was held until bonds were arranged.

Officials of the city and county were forced to give $5,000 bonds. Others were required to furnish $1,000 security.

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION CALLED TO STATE POLICY

Rep. Botts Wants to Know If Money Available Will Pave the 7,700 Miles of Highways.

Jefferson City, Jan. 23.—The House today adopted a resolution calling the state highway commissioner to state whether or not he would have sufficient funds to hard surface the entire state system of 7,700 miles. The resolution was introduced by Representative Botts of Adrian County, who declared that they were now spending money to construct bridges and culverts, that will not be a part of the state highway system. The commission was called upon to state its policy.

Judge and Mrs. Jesse F. Robertson, who went to Kansas City Sunday morning on a business trip, returned home last night.

160,000 ARE STILL ON STRIKE IN RUHR

ACCORDING TO LATEST ESTIMATE MADE AT ESSEN.

A MORATORIUM PLAN

Is Made by France—Court-martial of German Mine Operators on Today.

Essen, German, 7 p. m.—German strikers in the Ruhr and Rhineland were estimated at more than 160,000.

Paris, Jan. 23.—France is willing to grant a two year indemnity moratorium to Germany on condition that she will pay $500 million dollars in gold and in the meantime pledge the nation's wealth to the allies, it was revealed this afternoon in an official announcement of the new reparation plan.

Essen, Jan. 23.—All was quiet along the Ruhr today. A number of miners and railroads were still idle, but the French claim that many, who quit their work yesterday, have reconsidered and are now at their tasks. No outbreaks or disorders have been reported up to this hour today.

A course of threat was made by French drapery up additional forces. French, Belgian and Italian engineers are arriving and studying the operation of German mine machinery for operation if necessary.

Reports are being circulated in German circles that the French and Belgians are bringing up re-inforcements of troops. Berlin has counseled the people of the Rhineland to stand firm in their passive resistance, declaring that any sign of weakness being shown now, would be encouraging for the French.

It is understood that the trials of the Ruhr coal mine directors, who were arrested Saturday, are now under way. They are appearing before the French military tribunal at Mayence, formerly headquarters of occupation army. The charge placed against them is disobedience.

GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP URGED BY FROMAN IN H. S. TALK

Student Body President Asks for Courteous Conduct at Basketball Games—First Assembly Today.

The new semester at the High School started this morning with an assembly. After the announcements were made, the president of the student body, Forrest Froman, gave a talk on the conduct of the spectators at the basketball games. He requested the students and all other spectators to refrain from cheering when the opponents were fouled. This is not good sportsmanship, and it gives the visitors a bad impression of the town and of the school, he said. This was done last Friday night at the game, and it is to be hoped that it will be the last time that it is done, said Froman.

On behalf of the basketball team, Captain Oren Masters presented Mr. Ziegler with a little present. This present was a gold Masonic emblem, and it was given to Mr. Ziegler at an assembly, held this afternoon at the High School. It was a token to express the gratitude of the team and of the student body for his support of athletics in the High School.

LONDON PAPER CHARGES THAT RUSSIAN SOVIET IS IN IRELAND

States That Arms Are Coming in From Scotland—Round-up of Republicans Started

London, Jan. 23.—The Tory newspaper, the morning Post, charged in this morning's issue that the Moscow Soviet was behind the republican revolt in Ireland and that "arms are pouring in from the United States and Scotland."

Dublin, Jan. 23.—A great round up of republican irregulars began by the Free State government all along southwestern Ireland. Prisoners and munitions were taken at Tipperary, Newport Castle, Limerick and North Galloway. Tom O'Donnell, member of the Dail Eireann, was captured by the irregulars but escaped. Prof. Cleary and Dr. Murphy visited Pius 11 to protest against the catholic hierarchy's attitude towards the republicans.

Dr. Karl Malotte, Present President, and Fred R. Wolfers, Vice President—Clarence Cook, Sec'y.

A meeting of the Maryville High School Alumni Association will be held in the near future for the purpose of electing a secretary-treasurer. This announcement was made this morning by Dr. Karl R. Malotte, the president of the association.

Clarence Cook is the present secretary-treasurer of the association and as he is no longer a resident of Maryville his place will have to be filled by one of the resident members.

The only other office of the association, that of vice-president, is filled at the present time by Fred R. Wolfers.

FORMER S. T. C. TEACHER IS SCENIC ARTIST OF BIG PLAY

Frank J. Zimmerer, Formerly of College Art Department With Biblical Drama, "Book of Job"

Friends in Maryville will be much interested in the news that Frank J. Zimmerer, a former member of the State Teachers College faculty, is the scenic artist of the great Biblical drama, "The Book of Job," which will be seen tonight at the Lyceum Theater in St. Joseph. From the standpoint of art there is not to be found on the stage today a drama which excels "The Book of Job," according to the leading critics. The lighting effects are a big feature. The stage settings are the very simplest, the dress of the characters is decidedly plain and only by the wonderful lighting is the beauty and the artistic atmosphere obtained. Mr. Zimmerer was head of the department of art at the State Teachers College during the presidency of the Rev. Homer Marten Cook from 1907 to 1909.

KLAN DEFINITELY LINKED WITH HOODED MOB MURDERS

Testimony Introduced Today to Show Klan Officials Bought Control of Wires That Night.

Bastrop, La., Jan. 23.—The Ku Klux Klan was definitely linked to the hooded mob murders of Mer Rouge for the first time, when circumstantial evidence was produced at the open hearing this afternoon.

Coming as a sensation to the crowded courtroom testimony was introduced to show that Klan officials sought to control all wire communication from the town on the night Watt Daniels and Charles Richards were murdered by the masked riders of the night.

The books of the Southern Carbon Company, which contained names of employees, thought to be members of the murder mob, were seized today on a subpoena "duces tecum" issued by Judge Fred L. Odum. It was said by state authorities that many alterations had been made in an attempt to substantiate alibis for the murder suspects. It will probably be introduced into court late this afternoon.

HYDE AND BARRETT COMMENTS ON F. TATE'S "$1000 GIFT"

Tate Had Given Kesterson a $1,000 to Get Him Political Job—Hyde Didn't Know It.

Jefferson City, Jan. 23.—The payment of $1,000 by Fred Tate, special investigator for Attorney-General Barrett to Ben Kesterson, Kansas City lawyer, to intercede in his behalf to get the job as police commissioner at Kansas City is a "closed incident" so far as the attorney-general is concerned. Barrett stated plainly that he is satisfied with Tate's story that the fee was paid to Kesterson, but says that no further investigation will be made unless additional information is brought to him.

On the other hand, when the information of the $1,000 transaction was told to Governor Hyde, he declared that it looked like a case of bribery and was a case for the courts.

"I have no control over the actions of individuals," he declared. "Tate's name was never mentioned to me by Kesterson. From what I've been told of the story it looks like bribery to me."

Barrett said that Tate had shown "decidedly rotten judgment" in paying Kesterson the $1,000. "Tate has given the state invaluable service in the investigation of prohibition violation, and the lumber trust," said Barrett. "Investigations are now under way and I shall continue to use Tate's services."

DOUGHBOYS READY TO LEAVE RHINE

AMERICAN SOLDIERS WILL LEAVE COBLENZ TOMORROW.

TO SAIL FROM ANTWERP

Leaving Will End Four Years Occupation—German Residents Mourn Their Leaving.

Coblenz, Germany, Jan. 23.—The American flag, which has floated over the great German fortress of Ehrenbreitstein for the past four years, will be hauled down at noon tomorrow. Immediately afterwards the United States army of occupation will depart for Antwerp to sail home on the transport St. Michel.

French troops will form a guard of honor for the American troops at their departure. Upon their arrival in the United States, all married ranking staff sergeants will be honorably discharged unless some individual circumstances will make it inadvisable. Deep mourning has been manifested by the Germans, who have become attached to the American doughboys.

Agitation for the return of the American troops was first started January 6, when Senator Reed of Missouri, introduced a resolution in the Senate to the effect that the upper body favored the return of the troops. The resolution passed the Senate that day.

Following developments in Europe and the first moves of the French for the occupation of the Ruhr, President Harding on January 19, ordered the immediate withdrawal of the American troops.

The doughboys will hate to leave Germany, where they have been able to live like millionaires. Every one of their good American dollars will buy about 20,000 German marks at the present quotation. Their pre-war value was about 4,500 times the present value. Not only do they hate to return because of this, but the idea of living in the "American Sahara" does not make them enthusiastic about leaving Rhineland.

DAYLIGHT BANDITS GET $50,000 IN NEW YORK

Hold Up Money Car of Bank, Forces Guards Out, and Drive Off With Car

New York, Jan. 23.—Four armed bandits, in the business section of Brooklyn today held up a motor car containing $50,000 belonging to the Municipal Bank of east New York, commanded the driver to drive to a solitary spot, then escaped with the money and the car. The three armed guards were unable to make any resistance. The money was being removed from the main office to the Borough Park branch.

The bandits were in a closed car and forced the money car to the curb. Four bandits leaped from the coupe with drawn revolvers. One gave the chauffeur the command to turn and drive to a desolated spot. The guards, with four revolvers in their faces, could do nothing else.

At a lonely spot the messengers were ordered to put up their hands and "step lively," and as they got out of the car the bandits leaped inside and drove away. As the bandits drove off the messengers ran in different directions looking for a policeman. A description of the car was sent to headquarters and a general alarm sent out.

THE MENACE OF WAR

The action of France in seizing a part of the Ruhr valley in Germany is viewed with more or less uneasiness all over the world. Some prophets believe that this act must stir revolt.

As they look at it, it might occur to the soviet chieftains of Russia that by making common cause with the German people they could upset the dominating power of France, England and Italy. If these powers once get to fighting again, there is no telling when the conflict will end or how far it will go.

But while Germany may have evaded the disarmament provisions of the Versailles treaty to some extent, she is in no condition to make much war at present. The war making power is a vast machine that calls for a tremendous equipment, and Germany has had to give up most of this equipment.

But these powers are acting much like the man who smokes in a powder magazine. The peoples of Europe are in a highly excitable state, depressed by bad conditions and in a mood where there might be temporary outbreaks if not any real war. To settle these disturbed conditions calls for broad statesmanship and conciliation rather than use of force.

The Germans have committed crimes and atrocities of the greatest enormity. But that does not mean that it is good policy to try to hold them down indefinitely by force. The world must reach some kind of a working agreement with them.

If they are given no incentive to pay for the damage they did, they will never make much effort, and will stall the whole machine by passive resistance. The United States should exert its influence against extreme policies of force, will get more out of Germans if it reaches some voluntary agreement with them.

War never pays but the taxpayer does.

You can't blame some people for not taking their own advice.

It is estimated that poison booze will kill 1200 people this year. You don't need to be one of them unless you want to be.

Wallace Reid made a game fight against narcotics but he lost because the drugs had him for keeps before he became awake to his danger.

Now is the time to become a millionaire cheaply. You can buy a million German marks for $46. Some people, however, will want to wait until they are cheap.

The miners' scale is up again. The weather man has been doing all he could to protect the consumers in this controversy between the miners and the operators. And it may be added, the weather man is about the only one who can do much for the consumer after the miners and the operators both get what they want.

People who claim they kill their companions or lovers because of too much love for them simply lie. They do it because they love themselves and become enraged because the other party does not love them as much as they think they should. More crime is committed because of enraged vanity or unsatisfied selfishness than because of love for any one else.

SPROUTING CALIFORNIA ROMANCE BURGEOIS IN MOONLIGHT OF HAWAII

Honolulu, Jan. 23.—Miss Margaret E. Cobb and Elvin A. Hurlburt had known each other for six or seven years back in Whittier, California, but it took the impetus furnished by Honolulu's wonderful moonlight nights and the soft lapping of the ocean waves on the sands of Waikiki to bring romance to the matrimonial bureau climax. They told the marriage license clerk this story when they recently stepped up to the window for the legal papers, and followed this action immediately with a marriage ceremony at the Catholic mission.

Women Confer on Their Sex in Industry

Did you know that there are eight and one-half million wage-earning women in the United States? This, coupled with the fact that many thousands of them are mothers and homekeepers brings about some definite problems which were discussed at the women's industrial conference which was held by the woman's bureau of the Department of Labor on January 11-13 with representative women from all over the country attending. The photograph shows (left to right): Mrs. Mary N. Winslow, editor and director of exhibits for the bureau; Miss Mary V. Robinson, assistant editor, and Miss Lida Lee, assistant director of exhibits, with some of the exhibits which were shown. Insert is portrait of Miss Mary Anderson, who was in charge of conference.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Relieved of Nervousness and Other Distressing Ailments by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Brooklyn, N. Y. — "I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound four years ago, and am taking it now for the change of life and other troubles and I receive great benefit from it. I am willing to let you use my letter as a testimonial because it is the truth. I found your booklet in my letter-box and read it carefully, and that is how I came to take the Vegetable Compound myself. It has given me the quiet nerves so that I sleep all night, and a better appetite. I have recommended it already to all my friends and relatives." — Mrs. ENGLEMAN, 2032 Palmetto St., Ridgewood, Brooklyn, N. Y.

For the women suffering from nervous troubles causing sleeplessness, headache, hysteria, "the blues," Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be found a splendid medicine. For the women of middle age who are passing through the trials of that period, it can be depended upon to relieve the trouble common at that time.

Remember, the Vegetable Compound has a record of nearly fifty years of service and thousands of women praise its merit, as does Mrs. Engleman. You should give it a fair trial now.

K. C. ST. JOSEPH ROAD NEARLY ALL PAVING.

Only Small Gap to Be Unpaved in Year.

The Land Construction company has been awarded the contract to complete the paving on the Clay county road, and as soon as the job is finished, a paved highway, with the exception of the gap between Dearborn and the Platt-Clay county line, will connect St. Joseph with Kansas City. This company has also been awarded the contract for grading and paving the road from Nashua, in Clay county, to the Clinton county line.

Seven miles of the paving between Nashua and Smithville has been finished, and as soon as spring opens, the Land Construction company will begin on the paving from Smithville to the Clinton county line, a distance of five miles. The total cost for the twelve miles will be about $300,000, according to officials of the construction company.

The St. Joseph company is now moving machinery to Nashua, preparatory to the completion of the pavement from there to north Kansas City, for which the local company has been awarded the contract. Work will be started as soon as the weather permits. With the completion of this gap and the Clay county road, there will be a paved road most of the way to Kansas City, for a contract has also been let for the paving of the Jefferson highway from Paeuett to Dearborn, and work there will be started soon. It will probably require about a year to complete the paving.

Quota of Soap.

If all the soap that is manufactured annually in the United States could be floated—and much of it could be—it would represent a tonnage not greatly less than that of the United States navy, battleships, cruisers, destroyers, submarines, transports and all. The bureau of the census has just issued figures for 1919, according to which 2,432,591,000 pounds of soap was manufactured in the United States that year. That is 1,216,295 tons. These figures are for all forms of soap.

Figured on the basis of the present estimated population of the country there is produced each year twenty-two pounds of soap for every person in the country, although there is perhaps no commodity which varies more in point of individual consumption than this one. More soap is being produced in proportion to the population than in the output of twenty years ago—about five pounds more for every individual in the country.—New York Herald.

Cow Mothers Lambs.

A dairy cow in Glasthorne, Northants, Eng., having lost its calf, is acting as wet nurse to four motherless lambs. The cow and the lambs are inseparable, and the excellent condition of the lambs shows that the cow makes a capital foster mother.

CLEARMONT MEETINGS ARE WELL ATTENDED

Nearly 1,000 People Present Sunday Night—All-Day Service and Dinner Next Sunday

Sunday saw a fine audience of hundreds of people coming to the Clearmont Tabernacle Union Revival being held by the Methodist, Baptist and Christian churches and three smaller churches, led by Evangelist and Mrs. Tillman R. Braddy, assisted by Rev. E. R. Ingram and L. C. Wolfe. Several hundred heard the Evangelist Sunday morning on the subject, "No Room for Christ" Lu. 2:7. In the afternoon he gave a special lecture to men only on "The Great Achievement" Matt. 6:33. At night Mr. Braddy preached to almost a thousand people on the "Unsearchable Riches of Christ" Eph. 3:8, at which time delegations were recognized from Maryville, Elmo, Braddyville, Burlington Junction and other places, special music being rendered by the big choir, Orchestra and Mrs. Braddy, soloist of the party.

On Friday evening a number of fraternal and ladies orders were present and Saturday night being "Pioneer Night," a gentleman 76 years old took off the present given by the Evangelist.

Thursday evening will be "Citizen's night." Wednesday will be "Schools and Teachers' night." Thursday will be "Father and Son Night." Friday will be "Delegation's Night." Saturday will be "Mother and Daughter Night." Sunday will be an all-day service and basket dinner for all, with a Bible contest, at 2:00 o'clock. Men vs. the women, reading, memory work and writing. The final service will be for converts at which time a special charge will be given to the new followers of the Savior. All persons are invited to these meetings which have been attended by about 8,600 up to date. Nearly fifty persons have been converted in these meetings up to this time.

Complications.

From the Birmingham Age-Herald.

"What is this platonic love, anyhow?"

"It is supposed to be sort of intellectual attachment, in which a man and a woman gain inspiration from each other by an interchange of thought."

"I see."
"But it usually leads to a situation in which some lawyer or court functionary speaks the last word."

WILL SPEND TEN BILLION
ON MOTOR CARS IN 1923

Says Detroit Company—The New and Used Car Market Expected to Reach 3 Billion

Ten billion dollars, about 50 per cent of the entire national debt, will be spent in 1923 in America on motor cars, according to an average of many surveys by companies in Detroit.

The estimates indicate the majority of the executives of motor car manufacturing concerns believe 2½ million motor cars will be sold this year in the United States. That at the low average price of $1,000 would give the public a bill of 2,500 million dollars. Added to that will be the cost of approximately 1,900,000 used cars at an average price of $500. That will result in an item of 950 million dollars.

Then there are tires. With 11 million cars on the streets of America tire manufacturers expect to sell 29 million tires totaling close to 500 million dollars.

The manufacturers' statistical bureaus estimate repairs and replacements will approach 400 million dollars and that accessory men can hope to take away at least another 100 million dollars. Gasoline will cost about 1½ billion dollars. Painters, insurance companies, lubricating oil dealers and others will add their fees.

Included in the gigantic estimate is 1¼ billion dollars as the estimate of what purchase and upkeep of trucks will cost.

In every case the figures are more than the public spent in 1922, but the leaders of the motor industry are for-casting that prices may be slightly higher this year and they believe the number of states will be at least as great.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Archer went to Albany today to spend a few days on business.
